Firm Profile

The Law Firm of Campagne & Campagne, A Professional Corporation, consists of 5 attorneys and 5 paralegals. The law firm began in 1978 as a group of management labor law specialists, defending only employers in labor litigation and employment law matters (such as NLRB, ALRB, DFEH, EEOC, and OSHA agency suits; sex, race, age, physical disability and workers' compensation cases; collective bargaining agreement negotiations and arbitrations against unions; and strike injunctions and pension suits in state and federal courts). Since that time, the firm's practice has expanded to encompass representing industrial, agricultural and public entity employers and businesses in a range of business litigation and administrative agency litigation, as well as financial, real estate, corporate and transactional matters, and water law. The firm's philosophy is open and direct communication with its clients with a goal of providing its clients with quality legal work at a fair and reasonable cost.

Litigation, Employment & Labor Law, and General Business Matters; namely: Representing employers and businesses in the Public, Private and Agricultural sectors regarding: Labor Relations Law and Employment Discrimination and Wrongful Termination Law; Civil Trial and Appellate Litigation in all State and Federal Courts and Administrative Agencies; Commercial Litigation and Business Litigation and Real Estate Litigation; Real Property, Financial and Business Transactions, water law including contracts, corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies (LLCs); Agricultural Business Transactions, including services to growers, processors, shippers and marketers covering marketing orders, crop sales, crop damage and general farm and ranch law; Real Estate and Land Use.
